Jobscan

Large companies receive thousands of applications for a single job posting. In order to sort through them all, many of them use applicant tracking systems (ATS) to eliminate resumes that don't include the keywords they're looking for. Jobscan is an online tool that provides 2 free ATS-friendly resume scans per month. Once you upload your resume and add the job description, they will give you a match rate and tips to improve your score.