If your prior experience and current job isn't aligned to your career goals, there are many ways to supplement your degree and bridge the gap between where you're at in your career and where you want to be. Here are some suggestions:

- Network with people who work in your desired role or industry
- Participate in one of Rivet School's career programs
- Enroll in an online course or training program
- Start a side hustle
- Take on freelance work
- Attend graduate school
