Schools are organizations that have many teaching and non-teaching roles that all have the common goal of supporting student learning. If you are interested in working at a school or switching roles within your current school district, you can refer to this list of roles in your job search. We recommend using EDJOIN, a leading educational job search platform.

	Teaching roles work directly with students for a majority of their day.	Non-teaching roles support students outside of the classroom.
